

A SUCCESSFUL COLLABORATION FOR Multi-Center Oncology Trials

About Us

Hoosier Cancer Research Network, Inc., is an independent nonprofit contract research organization (CRO) that specializes in early phase, multi-center, investigator-initiated oncology clinical trials.

Services

- Protocol Development Support
- Regulatory & IND Management
- Contracting, Budgeting & Payment Processing
- Site Selection, Training & Activation
- Project Management
- Data Management & Monitoring
- Correlative Research Management
- Safety Reporting
- Publication & Presentation Support

Correlative Capabilities

- -140 mechanical cryogenic freezer
- Three -80 degree freezers
- Study-specific sample collection kits
- Oversight for all sample processing & tracking
- Site training & support throughout life of the study

Disease Specific Clinical Trial Working Groups

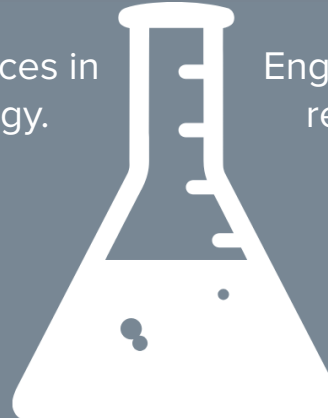

Breast Cancer | Correlative Sciences | Gastrointestinal
Genitourinary | Lymphoma | Melanoma | Myeloid
Neuro-Oncology | Sarcoma | Thoracic

Share best practices in clinical oncology.

Engage with industry representatives.

Submit an LOI.

Participate in HCRN Clinical Trials.

100+

Clinical Research Sites

65

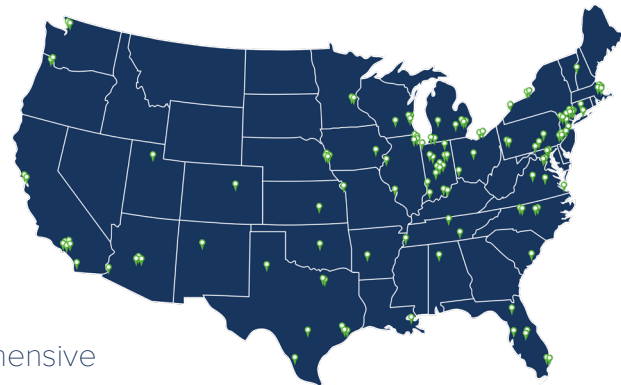

Academic Institutions

40+

Community Sites

46

NCI Designated Comprehensive Cancer Centers

250+

Clinical Trials

70+

Studies

60+

Sponsor-Investigators

10,000+

Subjects

40+

Funders

350+

Publications

15MAY2024